

MP Judiciary Syllabus 2025

The Madhya Pradesh High Court holds a competitive test called the Madhya Pradesh Judiciary test to fill the post of Civil Judge, which is an entry-level job in the state judiciary. This article is designed to help you know about the MP judiciary syllabus 2025 in more details. For law graduates hoping to join Madhya Pradesh's judiciary, this test is essential. Its purpose is to evaluate the applicants' legal knowledge, their capacity for analysis, and their comprehension of the state's application of both criminal and civil law.

Stages of the Examination MP Judiciary Syllabus

2025:

Preliminary Examination

- This is the initial phase, which acts as a filter to choose applicants for the Mains test. Along with general knowledge and computer skills, it consists of objective-type questions covering a variety of legal topics, including the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Civil Procedure Code, and Constitution of India.
- The nature of this stage is qualifying, and the prelim scores are not taken into account for the final selection.

Mains Examination

- The most important step in the selection process is this descriptive type exam stage.
- The assessment evaluates a candidate's comprehensive understanding of the law, their capacity to formulate sound legal arguments, and their proficiency in expressing these arguments in written form.

Interview Round

- The personal interview is the last phase, during which a candidate's suitability for a career in the courts is assessed. It evaluates the applicants' general aptitude, ethics, manner, and capacity for handling pressure.
- During the interview, a candidate's capacity for problem-solving and comprehension of diverse socio-legal matters are evaluated.

MP civil judge syllabus 2025: Pattern of the Examination

Preliminary Examination

- The MP Judiciary contains one paper
- It consists of total 150 marks

- The weightage given to one question is of 1 mark
- It contains no negative marking
- The time allotted for this MP judiciary preliminary exam is 2 hours
- This MP Judiciary preliminary exam is administered online
- The minimum qualifying marks is 90 for general category and the minimum qualifying marks for OBC is 82 for the reserved category

Mains Examination

- The MP Judiciary mains examination has total of 4 papers
- The duration is 3 hours for each and every paper
- It contains a total of 100 marks each paper
- The MP Judiciary mains examination is conducted on offline mode
- The minimum qualifying marks in each paper is 50% for the general category and the minimum qualifying marks is 45% for the reserved category

Interview Round

- This is the last stages for the selection process in the MP judiciary exam
- The MP judiciary interview round is more about the personality test
- It contains a total of 50 marks

Details of the Syllabus by MPHELP.in

Preliminary Examination

- Total 5 questions posed on Indian Constitution carrying one mark each
- Total 20 questions posed on Code of Civil procedure carrying one mark each
- Total 7 questions posed on the Transfer of Property Act carrying one mark each
- Total 8 questions posed on the Indian Contract Act carrying one mark each
- Total 6 questions posed on the Specific Relief Act carrying one mark each
- Total 4 questions posed on the Limitation Act carrying one mark each
- Total 5 questions posed on the MP Accommodation Control Act carrying one mark each
- Total 5 questions posed on the MP land Revenue Code carrying one mark each
- Total 15 questions posed on the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam carrying one mark each
- Total 15 questions posed on the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita carrying one mark each

- Total 5 questions posed on Negotiable Instrument Act carrying one mark each
- Total 4 questions posed on Information Technology Act carrying one mark each
- Total 3 questions posed on Juvenile Justice Act carrying one mark each
- Total 3 questions posed on Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act carrying one mark each
- Total 10 questions posed on General Knowledge carrying one mark each
- Total 10 questions posed on Computers carrying one mark each
- Total 10 questions posed on English carrying one mark each

Mains Examination

Paper 1: Civil Law and Procedure

- Constitution of India
- Code of Civil Procedure (1908)
- Transfer of Property Act (1882)
- Contract Act (1872)
- Specific Relief Act (1963)
- Limitation Act (1963)

Paper 2: Essay and Précis writing

- Writing on social issue carrying 20 Marks
- Writing on Legal issue carrying 20 Marks
- Precis Writing (Law) carrying 20 Marks
- Translations from (Hindi to English) carrying 20 Marks
- Translation from (English to Hindi) carrying 20 Marks

Paper 3: Local Criminal Law and Procedure

- Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (2023)
- Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (2023)
- Bharatiya Sakshya Adhinyam (2023)
- Negotiable Instrument Act (1881) (Chapter 13 to 17)
- MP Accommodation Control Act (1961)
- MP Land Revenue Act (1959)

Paper 4.: Judgment writing

- The Framing of Issues carrying 10 Marks
- The Framing of Charges carrying 10 Marks

- The Judgment /Order (Civil) Writing carrying 40 Marks
- The Judgment /Order (Criminal) Writing carrying 40

Interview Round

- It has no set of specified curriculum.
- It is a test of the candidate's personality. In the interview, a candidate must receive at least 40% of the possible points.

MP judiciary syllabus 2025 FAQs

1. How many times can I give the MP judiciary exam?

Candidates may take the MP Judicial Examination up to six times in a row.

2. What is the syllabus of MP judiciary exam 2025?

Four legal subjects, the Constitution, Civil Law, Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam 2023, Writing Skill and Court Practice, and Procedure, as well as one language subject comprise the MP Judicial Services mains examination. The language paper consists of some precis writing questions and questions dependent on translation.

3. What is the lowest rank in judiciary?

The lowest positions in the Indian legal system are held by the Judges of District Courts, Magistrates belong to the IInd Class, and Junior Division Civil Judges.

4. Who is eligible for MP Civil Judge 2025?

These are the requirements for eligibility to become an MP Civil Judge in 2025.

- Educational Requirements: 3- or 5-year LLB degree from any accredited university
- The minimum percentage of marks required for the law program is 70% for General Category and OBC, and 50% for SC/ST Category.
- Age Range: 21 to 35 years old (as of January 1, 2025)
- Nationality: Indian citizenship is required.

5. Is there negative marking in MP judiciary?

Each question receives one mark, and there is no negative evaluation. This is a qualifying exam, and the results are not taken into account for creating the merit list.

6. Can a final year student apply for MP judiciary?

To apply for the Madhya Pradesh Judiciary Examination, you must be an honours graduate in law from an accredited university. In order to be eligible for the exam, you also needed to have passed your final year examination prior to the interview phase.

7. How to prepare for MP judiciary?

Prioritize the subjects that will have the most weight in your MP Judiciary preparation. Examples of such topics include the Transfer of Property Act, the Specific Relief Act, and the Indian Constitution. Review these subjects every day.

8. Is judiciary tough to crack?

The judicial services exam is extremely difficult, and candidates who do not score the necessary number of points will not be considered for a position. For example, in the last three years, at least four major Indian states have not been able to fill every available judge job

9. Is 70 percent required for MP judiciary eligibility?

Today, July 26, the Supreme Court declined to consider a case that contested the necessity of earning 70% of LLB credits in order to be eligible to apply for entry-level positions in the Madhya Pradesh Judicial Services. Such an eligibility criteria, according to the Court, guarantees that better persons enter the judiciary.

10. What is the name of MP judiciary exam?

For law graduates hoping to join the state's judicial system, the Madhya Pradesh High Court administers the Madhya Pradesh Civil Judge Exam (MPCJ), which is a vital first step.

Thanks to MPHELP.in